

GPS is delighted to welcome you at the “GPS International Seminars”!

*Seminars will be held via Zoom at:
<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/8561420146>*

Reminders with the same zoom link will be posted on GPS website before each event

4 May 2002, 16.30 CET

Shifting borders and the Shrinking Spaces for Rights

Guest speaker:

Ayelet Shahar, Professor of Law, University of Toronto

Principal discussant:

David Jacobson, Professor of Sociology, University of South Florida

18 May 2002, 16.30 CET

Between Colonization and Globalization: Korean’s fight for social justice in Japan

Guest speaker:

Hwaji Shin, Professor of Sociology, University of San Francisco

Principal discussant:

Catherine Wihtol de Wenden, Professor of Political Science, Sciences Po Paris

25 May 2002, 16.30 CET

Toward a predistributive democracy: Diagnosing oligarchy, dedemocratization, and the deceits of market justice

Guest speaker:

Margaret Somers, Professor of Sociology and History, University of Michigan

Principal discussant:

Robert Kloosterman, Professor of Economic Geography, University of Amsterdam

8 June 2002, 16.30 CET

Citizenship Privilege

Guest speaker:

Peter Spiro, Professor of Law, Temple University

Principal discussant:

Manlio Cinalli, Professor of Sociology, University of Milan

9 June 2002, 16.30 CET

The Age of the Strongman: How the Cult of the Leader Threatens Democracy

Guest speaker:

Gideon Rachman, Chief Foreign Affairs Columnist, Financial Times

Principal discussant:

To be confirmed